Can Formula E help New Yorkers explore positive ways to tackle climate change?

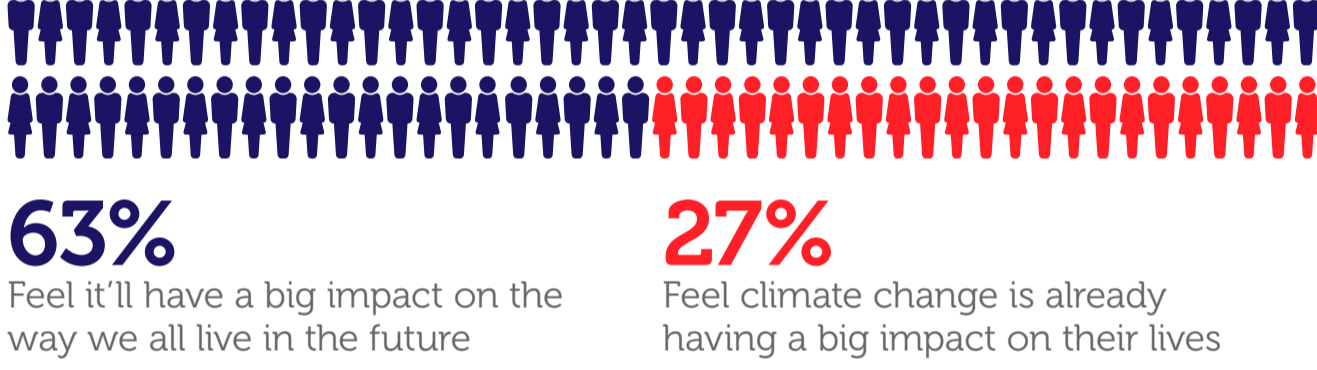

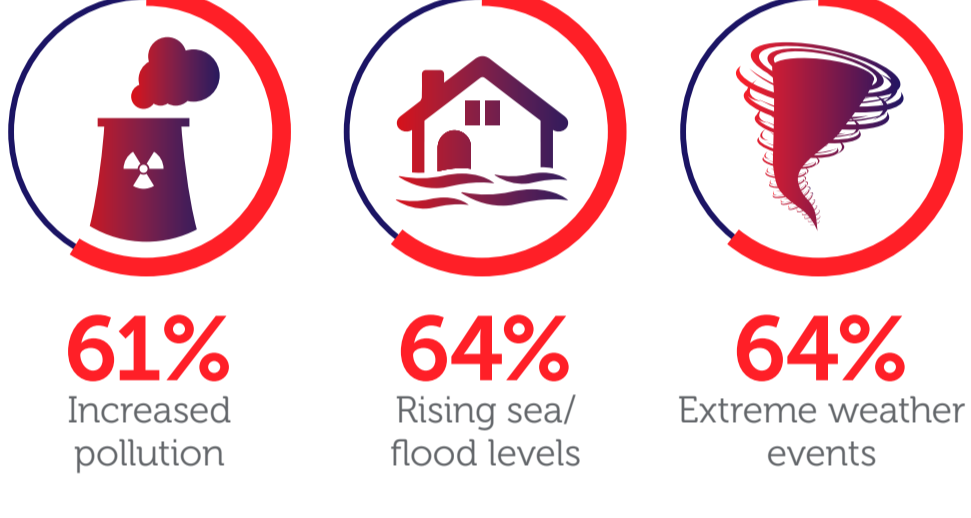

Formula E is coming to Brooklyn on July 15/16

Formula E can help show New Yorkers that new technologies could help them tackle climate change.

A poll of over 1,000 18 to 35 year old New Yorkers by global reinsurer MS Amlin finds:

The climate change issues they worry about most are those they see around them:

How 18 to 35 year old New Yorkers are tackling climate change:
